

Strong As It's Ever Been:

A buncha torn up letters in the trash with a dried up pen
Empty bottle of wine and these 4 walls caving in
And the moonlight shining is as strong as its ever been
Just like this love

Is as pure as it ever was
Steady as a father's hand
Warm as a summer sun
True as a Sunday hymn
But you left me with an emptiness
Gone like a midnight win
And this heartbreak I'm left with
Is as strong as it's ever been

A lack of Marlboro Reds laying down on an empty bed
I got a double shot of scotch on the rocks taking off the edge
And the long, hard, burn is as strong as it's ever been
Just like this love

Is as pure as it ever was
Steady as a father's hand
Warm as a summer sun
True as a Sunday hymn
But you left me with an emptiness
Gone like a midnight win
And this heartbreak I'm left with
Is as strong as it's ever been

I wanna call you
Wanna kiss you
Wanna drive by and tell you I miss you
And baby that this love

Is as pure as it ever was
Steady as a father's hand
Warm as a summer sun
True as a Sunday hymn
But you left me with an emptiness
Gone like a midnight win
And this heartbreak I'm left with
Is as strong as it's ever been
